some idea of our difficulty - We had three friends staying with us and we hoped when they left we should have nice time for the Baynard Whipsone of them got scarlet fever and the other was nearly as ill - and when they were getting on I got ill - for some months we have not had one quiet day - Mrs Manning the active and anxious Secretary had one of his daughters ill every now and then during the year. had to go to a watering place &c and the young lady herself was always actively engaged - when the cholera was in Cork and while that was the case, as ~~Society~~ In foreign matters could be spoken of - even had the people been well enough to think as usual - but the air was not good any where - The Pipes Jones who worked the "Departure of Rebecca" was supplied with materials by the Society, but they deserve great credit for their perseverance - they have been parts of two years working it and as they have a great deal of their own affairs to occupy them- ne while they could not have been idle! they have both been married within the last few months - and are now Mrs Haycroft and Mrs Plant - they were first interested in the which he is interested has as good a chance of succeeding as any other which C. he undertakes and they feel that his claims are great. He wound a feeling which no one else had done. partly from the fact that he had actually suffered and partly from his actual powers. His North Star is greatly liked. He has succeeded in making it a paper which even [illegible] publick can take up and read some of and yet he is thoroughly and entirely Anti-Slavery - in these Counties we must have something more than A. S. news or our gentlemen friends there Them being are not interested as R. D.

Webb - indeed he could scarcely know all he does of American except he was so very fond of reading every thing - America, except us a Place to send emigrants to, & yet corn from, is, I am sorry to say, very little known in Cork - we are far behind England - We have heard from our aunts in Paris of the arrival of your brother and Mrs Bolton, Lucretia and son - Mackellar - we shall hope to hear more of Mrs Bolton - we all feel under obligations to her for her selections of Married Life and Selections from Reuben - I hope to send a list of the Subscribers to publish in the Bazaar Gazette as it shows the goods have been received - Boston being, as I said, a far-away place to many who send - But you must not understand to many Liberty Bells to Cost - all think it most unreasonable but we like to get 60 or 70 B. G.

with many many excuses and thank wishes to you
